One day we shall look back at our high school years and smile. We shall laugh at our clothing, our hair styles, and our promises. Certainly, we will relish our memories of four carefree years, perhaps even shed a tear or two.

However, a Greek philosopher by the name of Heraclitus probably said it best. "You cannot step twice into the same river." We will never have another experience that will take us through so many ups and downs, one that will provide us with such an amazing growth process. It is sad to think that soon, gone will be the days of our classes, activities, dances, games, rallies, and field trips. It is difficult to imagine life without a bell schedule and the promise of a big blue locker on the senior hallway. Yet, at the same time, we, the class of 1995, pride ourselves on our stubborn nature and our idealism. We feel ready to take on the world and to be more than just little fish in a big pond.

This year, the Oracle will take us on a journey that relives the thoughts, feelings and events that shaped our days at Randolph Junior/Senior High School. How did we feel on the first day of the ninth grade? We were fresh out of the Kennedy Junior High School, unsure of what to do in a seemingly huge, new environment. As time passed we made contributions to the academic and social climate of the school. We always wanted to leave our mark, showing enthusiasm that will never be replicated. Of course, by our senior year we were brimming with memories and twinges of nostalgia.

Our quotes and our pictures will always remain on the pages that follow. As we step off the field at graduation and into the uncertain world that lies ahead, we know that we can never go back. We shall miss our friends, our faculty and our school, but forever etched into our minds are the impressions left by our four years at Randolph Junior/Senior High School.

ADMINISTRATORS

Mr. James E. Watson
Headmaster
Randolph Jr./Sr. High School

Though Mr. Watson's tenure at Randolph Jr./Sr. School has been a brief one, he has made many significant improvements in the school. He has managed to integrate students of all ages to create an atmosphere for school pride and learning. Mr. Watson has done an admirable job at Randolph Jr./Sr. High School, and we would like to extend our thanks and best wishes in the coming years.

To The Class of 1995 :

Congratulations! I hope that your high school experience has prepared you to meet the challenges which you will face after leaving us. Taking advantage of the many wonderful opportunities which were provided to you in academics, athletics and other student activities was a wise decision.

I hope that Randolph Junior/Senior High School has made your lives better and that you have benefited from the many programs and activities offered in this school. We have tried to teach you to be successful. Remember, that the ingredients for success are determination, hard work and learning from experience.

Use these ingredients throughout your adult lives, and learning and improvement will lead you down the path to many treasures.

Best of luck in your future endeavors. Come back to visit us.

Sincerely,

James E. Watson

WELL WISHES: CONGRATULATIONS SENIORS!!!

Big Ears and Monster Face, Go Penmen! 4 #3's, one no mayo! Where the heck's Holden? Are we backtracking? I gotta work at 8, guys! Takes an hour to get there and 2½ to get home! Bididel! Jammin! Love always, Reddog and Mapmaker

To my teammates on the basketball court, I love you guys. Mike

To my best friends: Don't forget, Run PMV to MO2LD to the Vatos Locos. We were all that and some! Voltaire Ojastro, Esq.

It's been a great four years. Vatos Locos Forever! Now give me some chong-chong and Taco Bell! See ya! "Dro"

Best wishes for a wonderful future to those students who worked so arduously to create the 1995 Oracle.

I want to thank both varsity basketball teams for a fun season full of great memories, especially our first win, and all the Friday nights and the Round Round. Thanks! J. Healey

To T.S., H.H., and K.R. — Never forget the trips to N.H. — to go see a hockey game then going to Rumney to snowmobile, or to watch Annie or Ace. I'll miss you dogs! J.H.

Best Wishes for your future. Mr. Mellett

Best Wishes to all, especially our former Donovan School graduates! Mrs. Montana

Good luck and happiness to all of the graduates! Mrs. Salden (formerly Ms. Moskowitz)

Congratulations to the Class of 1995! Mr. Ron Lovett, Dir. Society and Culture

To A.H., Kudos for all your prodigious efforts on behalf of your fellow students.

To the Class of '95," Thanks for all the good times and laughs. I'll miss you guys; and to my "Penman," you are always in my heart and forever in my mind! Love, Tammy

SENIOR

Most Scholarly

The students selected for senior superlatives were chosen by their peers as the embodiment of a particular characteristic. Superlative winners are very special people, for they discovered how they were viewed and respected by the rest of the senior class. Superlative winners are the best and the brightest at whatever they do. No doubt, they will use their assets, talents, features as well as the rest of their character long after their days at Randolph Jr./Sr. High School.

POETIC IMPRESSIONS

As I sit on the bed,
I began to think —
About the last four years,
"The best years of my life,"
About myself.
Who I was,
Who I am now,
Who I will become.
About what high school has taught me.
More than math and history —
Responsibility and pride,
Maturity and success.
About the years to come.
Will they be better than high school?
Am I ready to experience them?
And my thoughts go back to myself.
I am.

— Allison Menovich

It is the middle of August.
I drive by the high school —
Closed and locked for the summer.
I look at the flag, waving in the wind.
I drive around the strangely empty parking lots.
I look at the football field,
The home of many Friday night games.
I remember all the time I spent in the building.
Although there is a smile on my face,
My head is buzzing with mixed emotions.
I am excited and thrilled about the coming years,
Yet anxious and frightened, too.
I am glad high school is over, yet upset.
As I drive home, I begin to cry.
I realize that for every tear there is a memory.
Memories I will have forever.

— Allison Menovich

DEDICATED TO THE TEACHERS

The Nineteen ninety-five Oracle would like to thank all teachers at Randolph Jr./Sr. High School who have made impressions in our lives. We recognize them, for they have dedicated their days and nights to educating us and making us better individuals. The teachers have instilled in us that we must stand apart and express our beliefs, as well as make impressions in this world. Just as we have believed and trusted them, we hope that our teachers will believe in us as we stand and face the future.

TEACHING IMPRESSIONS

No bubble is so iridescent or floats longer than that blown by the successful teacher. — Sir William Osler

The whole art of teaching is only the art of awakening the natural curiosity of young minds for the purpose of satisfying it afterwards. — Anatole France

The soul takes nothing with her to the other world but her education and culture. — Plato

Knowledge is power. — Sir Frances Bacon

For all knowledge and wonder (which is the seed of knowledge) is an impression of pleasure itself. — Sir Frances Bacon

Good game, huh?

With jubilant spirit and flashing smiles, the RJSHS cheerleading team jumped and cheered with pride. From UCA Camp to competition, they were destined to achieve all they could. The cheerleaders, while working as a team, sustained cold noses and sore muscles throughout the entire '94-'95 season's games and half-time routines.

As we leave RJSHS, we will take with us the shared memories of the varsity cheerleading team — creating the homecoming floats, rallying for our football players and our great class spirit.

The memories people have of the Randolph High Marching Band may not be the same as its dedicated members. To the spectator, we may seem to be no more than a musical ensemble walking on a football field, but to the musicians, it is a team effort that requires many hours of practice.

From "Yankee Doodle" to "Under the Big Top," the past four years have had their ups and downs. We have either excelled in our craft or struggled for recognition, but we have always remained ambitious throughout all of the football games, local competitions, and critical evaluations we received. I hope we all remember the band as more than just a bunch of people "tooting our horns," but a team that works together to create a fantastic finished product.

Beginning as early as freshman year, the class of '95 had representatives on the boys' varsity soccer team. Since then, the team has improved greatly. The Devils won their first game in nearly six years and finished the '93 season with two wins and a tie in their final three games. In the 1994 season, the team recorded another win and a tie. At the end of the season, Senior Co-Capt. Bobby Richardson, was voted to the league's All Star team, and Senior Co-Capt. James Bryan Jr. was named to the league's Honorable Mention team.

Despite their record during the past four years, the girl's soccer team had a lot of fun. They did have one win versus Holbrook, 3-2. It was the most exciting game of their lives. Regardless of the score, they always gave 110%. Although some of the games were not very exciting, the team did many entertaining things off the field. They climbed Blue Hills, played paintball, had spaghetti dinners and Sunday scrimmages. Defensively, they ran the best offside traps in the league, and by the end of the season, their shots on net had doubled. There are a lot of great younger players on the team and the future for the team is an encouraging one. We wish them, and the coach, the best of luck!

GIRLS' CROSS-COUNTRY

Coached by Mr. Rowell, the girls' cross-country team had an exciting year. There were eight runners on this year's team led by senior captain Shelanda Irish. The other runners were Darshana Patel, Cindy Welch, Denise Gomes, Diana McGuirk, Karen Cassidy, Julia Hunter, and Laura Trull. Laura Trull had a fantastic season, earning Patriot Ledger All-Scholastic honors. The team had a 2-7 record with wins over Middleboro and Rockland.

The members of Randolph's cross country team are a determined group of aspiring athletes who are only going to improve in the years to come. With a small group of seniors and coach Mr. Powell leading the young team, Randolph proved that it will be a force in the coming years. Members of the Randolph Cross Country team fought their way through the season, using only their heart, determination and pride to keep them going.

1994-1995 was an up and down season for the Boys Basketball Team. However, it goes back to before this season. This group of seniors have been playing together since the seventh grade and as sophomores, seven of us made the varsity team. Sophomore and junior seasons we finished with better than a .500 record. This year, there were nine seniors on a team that began with many visions. We were 11-2 and everyone was filled with the hopes of a league championship. The highlight of the season was a victory over Duxbury in Duxbury. This was Duxbury's first league loss since 1991. We, as seniors, can definitely say that we have left many fond memories of our basketball careers here at Randolph High School.

Randolph High and the town are very proud of the Gymnastics Team. Having an undefeated year in the league, South Sectionals and State Championship, the girls were crowned the state gymnastics champions. As the Team worked together to win their victories, they also resulted in many individual successes. The Girls' Gymnastics team showed a lot of endurance under pressure in competitions, and their school work was never forgotten. As a result of their astronomical accomplishments, the Team was featured on a Channel 5 news report, High Five. Again, we are very proud to have the girls here at RJSHS as athletes, students and individuals. Way to go!

Although the season started off slow, the Wrestling Team soon proved their ability by winning the Scituate Invitational Tournament. As the season progressed the Team won a two-year high of seven matches and Captain Dan Rosen and Alex Apazidis both showed great ability through tournament competition. Overall, the year was a productive one and the team is very satisfied.

WINTER TRACK

Bad boys, bad boys, watcha gonna do?

Ta-dah!

The 1994 Boys Winter Track Team

This year's team has had its ups and downs this season, but overall our team did very well. Having many underclassmen such as Matt Warren and Kate Sullivan, there was a lot of depth. Seniors Shelanda Irish, Fab Estrela, and Meghan Sullivan contributed greatly toward a successful season.

It has been four great years for the girls' softball program at Randolph High School. We continued the tradition of excellence with three trips to the state tournament, and three second place standings in the Atlantic Coast League. Our final year has been just as fun as all the rest, as we have had six returning seniors to share it with. Thanks to a great coach, great friendships, and a lot of talent, softball has been a wonderful experience in our high school careers.

One of a kind. The staff of this year's Oracle has sought to produce a yearbook that was completely unique. With a completely new staff and a new advisor, the yearbook was surely going to be an original. The staff overcame their own inexperience and fought to get their ideas included. All members came through, especially when the deadlines approached. As our senior year came to an end, the most difficult work was placed on the most reliable people, who came through when they were depended upon.

The sports editors did a great job in capturing the fighting spirit of the Blue Devils. The club editor did a commendable job in making sure all clubs and members were represented as well as giving credit to all those students who tried to make a difference in the school. The senior staff and editors sought to make sure everyone and their ideas were included in the yearbook. The business staff combed the town in an effort to raise money for the Oracle. Everyone surpassed expectations and should be proud that they were an important part of producing a yearbook that is truly unique.

CLUBS

MAKING OUR MARK

The class of 1995 has always been a powerful force on the Student Council. Whether it has been showing the teachers how much we appreciate them or organizing activities to help the less fortunate, we always are there to lead the way. The council is made up of ten elected representatives from each of the grade nine through twelve. Also included are all the Student School Committee Representatives. An executive board made up of officers elected from the Student Council steers the direction that the body takes. The Randolph High School Student Council is also a force on the state level. This year Elizabeth Campbell has served as a delegate to the Massachusetts Association of Student Councils. Each summer we are proud to send some council members to leadership camps sponsored by the state association. We hope that those students are able to bring back new activities to enhance school spirit and benefit the community as a whole.

In past years, the Student Council has sponsored dances, rallies, and speakers that would benefit the student body. One of the council's most successful projects is run in conjunction with the Red Cross. Each year, two blood drives are held in Lecture Hall I to help the critically low blood banks. We have also run community service projects to aid the Randolph Food Pantry. Our most successful project was a clothing drive that generated more than 50 boxes of clothing for the needy. Thanks for all the support. We are sure to see our Student Council leaders of today in powerful positions in the future.

STUDENT SCHOOL COMMITTEE

Our years at Randolph High School have been eventful to say the least. Whether it's been working with Mr. Watson to get the rallies back in the auditorium, debating double period classes, or changing the student-athlete alcohol policy, we have left a lasting impression. Through it all, the Student School Committee has been there to present the School Committee with the student perspective.

Elysa Jacobs served as the committee's chairperson from 1992-95. During the last few years Rachel Sherman, Meghan Sullivan, and Eric Gillin have served as representatives from this class. These are the students, along with those that serve on the Handbook Committee that ensure that our rights and best interests are protected.

MATH TEAM

The Randolph Math Team capped off a successful 1994-95 season by finishing eighth in the Medium-School Division of the state competition. The Team qualified for the state meet after placing first in the regional final and third among 26 teams in the Southeastern Mass. Math League. This accomplishment marked the fourth consecutive year that the RJSMS Math Team qualified for the state competition. Big round of applause to the mathematicians!

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

"Scholarship, Leadership, Service and Character"

These four words describe the qualities of members of the National Honor Society. Members must earn good grades, exhibit leadership qualities, be dedicated to helping the community and be involved in many activities in and out of school.

Previously under the direction of Mona Rosen and Ann Marie Pokaski, the 50 members, juniors and seniors, ran many great programs. Last year, 1993-94, the Honor Society held a leaf raking fundraiser. The community "hired" members to rake their leaves. The chapter also initiated a recycling project in the school. This benefits not only Randolph High School but the entire environment as well.

This year, 1994-95, with the help of its new advisor Mrs. Lynne Harding and officers Kate Rottler, Haley Hamlin, Allison Menovich, Denise Topham and Dan Rosen, the Honor Society continued providing community service while raising money as the second annual leaf raking fundraiser, chaired by Greg McLaughlin and Cindy Welch, took place in the fall. The money raised will be spent on tassels for graduating seniors and other things for the induction of new members in May. The recycling project is underway again with the help of Jill Pokaski. This year, the N.H.S. collected donations of canned food, toys, clothes and toiletries to give to DOVE, a shelter to help battered women. This project, chaired by Allison Menovich and Debbie Stein, was very successful and will hopefully take place for many years to come.

HARVARD MODEL

CONGRESS

The students who attended Harvard Model Congress took part in a simulation of government. They debated, drafted bills and passed laws. Students were responsible for portraying every aspect of government, whether it be as senators, representatives, lobbyists, Constitutional Conventioneers, press, Cabinet members, National Security Council members, or officials of the District and Supreme Courts. Students were responsible for establishing a viewpoint and carrying it through the conference as they argued. Randolph High School participants met people from over eighty schools from across the nation. The perfect conclusion to this invaluable experience was the awards ceremony where many of the Randolph students were recognized for their outstanding participation in the conference.

AFRICAN-AMERICAN CLUB

The African-American Club at RJSHS is a rebirth group of young students sharing one common motive — to make RJSHS aware of diversity. This year, in the club, members made steps in trying to accomplish their objective. In the fall, the organization sponsored a Pot Luck dinner for all members of the school in which many different dishes were served for a couple of dollars.

During Black History Month, the members of the African-American Club designed a showcase in the school portraying a multitude of viewpoints of the black community and culture. Hoping to be a big success is a much ado talent and fashion show in late spring. Randolph JSHS is proud to have such conscious young adults; let's give the African-American Club a hand. Good job!

RANDOLPH ASIAN CULTURE CLUB

The Randolph Asian Culture Club is an organization composed of some of our school's Asian community. The main purpose of this group of young people is to promote the Asian culture and to arrange activities for the students.

This school year, R.A.C.C. put together an ensemble dedicated to the Chinese New Year. All of the Randolph community were invited, as were all of our renowned teachers. Many performances excited the crowd and everyone left with full stomachs from donated food from our town restaurants. R.A.C.C. hopes to continue its success in Asian cultural awareness for the years to come.

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

Everyday, people can exercise their rights through demonstrations, campaigns, etc. We take these rights for granted, but throughout the world, basic human rights are constantly being violated. The Randolph chapter of Amnesty International is part of a worldwide organization that fights through letters and other peaceful means for people's human rights and the safety of those whose human rights have been violated.

PEER LEADERSHIP

The Peer Leaders at RJSHS, although not often spoken of, are an integral part of the school. These sophomores, juniors and seniors serve as ears to younger students at our school and help to guide them in making wise decisions concerning life matters. Each year, the Leaders undergo a series of training workshops about alcohol, drugs, and peer pressure to help aid their guidance. After attending the workshops, the Leaders, in groups of three, go to junior high students and discuss such topics. The Leaders have proved to be a valuable part of the younger students' education and daily lives.

This year, the Leaders, in conjunction with S.A.D.D., are working to perform the play Ed die Was Here to further their duties as role models. As senior Leaders graduate from RJSHS, they leave behind part of their lives and influences to younger students, hoping they, too, will follow in the class of 1995's footsteps.

MY TURN

MY TURN, an acronym for Massachusetts Youth Teenage Unemployment Reduction Network, is a class at RJSHS that helps provide selected students with emotional support, knowledge, skills and self-esteem, while helping them find jobs. Not only does MY TURN add to the students' morale, but the class also helps students apply for and get into college upon graduation. The students of MY TURN are very active with the community as well as school, participating yearly in visits to homeless shelters as they listen and support the residents while learning about life themselves.

Aside from school, work, and community, the students enjoy themselves in many other ways. This school year MY TURN took a ski trip to Vermont and joined in a basketball game with Cardinal Spearman High School. At the end of the year they attended a Recognition Ceremony awarding students for their exceptional work in the classroom and out.

OFFICE STAFF

The Office Staff at Randolph High School serves as a means to aid secretaries in their rigorous job of managing the office's needs. Every period students work in the office to help find students in their classes or wherever they may be. Students working in the office earn half credits towards graduation.

STUDENTS AGAINST DRIVING DRUNK

The members of Randolph's Students Against Driving Drunk organization go about their business with one major goal: the spread of awareness throughout the school and community. This year, facts and statistics could be found regularly, hanging in the halls and posted in the classroom windows. Regular SADD programs include Substance Abuse Awareness Day and Operation Prom Night. This year, SADD brought in additional speakers and programs, such as the Norfolk County Offender's Program.

In SADD, the philosophy has been for many years that if one person gets the message, if only one person stops someone from driving drunk, then it is worth all of the work, the meetings, and the guest speakers. It is worth it to know that people are touched and empowered by our message. It is worth it to save a life.

STUDENT ALLIANCE AGAINST RACISM AND VIOLENCE

S.A.A.R. is about mediating and trying to better our school community by giving our all.

Composed of a group of diverse students who would like to mediate the violence and racism that occurs in our community and among the students, the members of the Student Alliance are trying to get an after school program which will someday help prevent problems teens face in their community.

Every year the club runs a multicultural fair, which is open to everyone in the school. The fair allows students to share their cultures' similarities and differences, and learn to appreciate what makes each unique.

The Alliance also holds several workshops with community leaders which allow students to open up to one another and help build leadership skills, set goals, and examine how the S.A.A.R. should be run.

SCHOOL STORE STAFF

The School Store allows students to learn about responsibility and teamwork while attending school. The staff is comprised of mature young men and women who work together to provide supplies for RJSHS students. Headed by Mr. Christopher for some time now, the Store takes every student's needs into consideration as it chooses its items. Store profits are put into scholarships for most deserving students at RJSHS.

The Library Media Staff at RJSHS plays an integral part in the daily operation of the media center. The staff, consisting of students, assist in helping to find books and to use library equipment. Not only do the staff members get satisfaction for their work, but they also receive half credits towards graduation.

Mrs. Hill is the advisor who dedicates herself to making this group possible.

BLUE AND WHITE BANNER

The Blue and White Banner is the official school newspaper. Its goal is to make the public aware of what is happening in our school. All the articles are written by students and the paper's staff is also entirely made up of students. The co-editors are Chris Hart and Nilesch Agarwalla, Juniors, who organize the paper's staff. The pair is also in charge of putting the paper together on the Macintosh computer in the Computer Room, 213. The General Editor, Richelle MacDonald, aids and assists whenever necessary, and keeps the co-editors in line.

A.R.T.

The Aesthetic Restoration Team, (A.R.T.), is a group of talented students who work to improve the appearance of our school. The students are mainly seventh, eighth and ninth graders who give up Friday afternoons, vacations and even come in during the summer to work. They are responsible for most of the artwork around the school.

The office area took on a whole new atmosphere after the exquisitely detailed Egyptian Murals were put up. All the teachers appreciate the room number signs and paintings above their classroom doors. The exterior of the pool foyer is a source of pride to the athletes at the high school because of the beautiful Sports Mural. Ms. Hughes has been the generous inspiration for A.R.T. and its success.

SELECT CHORUS

The select chorus at Randolph Jr./Sr. High School represents the best and most talented students the school has to offer. They are a diverse group which contributes to the student's appreciation of music.

SHOW CHOIR

The RJSHS Show Choir is a singing and dancing ensemble featuring students. This group of talented individuals attend competitions, both inside and outside the state, as well as perform for others in a non-competitive session. As the Show Choir perform, a pit band plays music.

The Marching Band is just as much of a team effort as a sport is. We practice three days per week and we compete against other bands from other towns. Our focus lies mainly in making good music and presenting a visual effect that goes well with the music. While we do this, we maintain a strong sense of pride in what we work at. Overall, I think we just want to be remembered as a good group of kids. Mr. David Berry is our Advisor.

JAZZ BAND

The Jazz Band is an exciting group of musicians. It consists of the rhythm section, piano, bass, drums, the brass section, trumpets, trombones, and the saxophone section.

Under the direction of Ms. Lisa Pimentel, assisted by Mr. Rob Goldman, this band succeeds in creating great music. Ms. Pimentel takes pride in making sure each band member fosters his or her talent, respects one another, and has a lot of fun.

The RHS Jazz Band performs in concerts and competes in many competitions throughout each academic year. In May 1993, the Jazz Band attended the North American Music Festival and brought home the 2nd place trophy, as well as the award for best saxophone section. In April 1995, it will return to this festival at Virginia Beach prepared to do its best.

Karen Cassidy and Eric Gillin

Looking back on the last four years of the Randolph High School Theatre Guild, one is likely to remember some wonderful times.

Freshman year, 1991-92, gave us Museums, the musical revue Politics and Poker and the Drama Festival entry, Courtship.

During sophomore year, 1992-93, performances included the musical revue Life is . . . and The Private Life of the Master Race, which was one of the semi-finalists at the Boston Globe Drama Festival.

Most recently, during junior year, 1993-94, the Theatre Guild had two very successful productions. Marvin's Room was put on in the winter, followed by Wendy Wasserstein's The Heidi Chronicles during the spring.

With the help of the 1994-95 Guild managers Eric Gillin, Jason Ricardo, Vanessa May and David Lurie, senior year won't prove any different from the last three. Productions including Alice in Wonderland, will allow the senior members of the Theatre Guild to leave with a bang.

Under the direction of Peter Carey, the Theatre Guild has put in many hours of practice over the past four years to achieve its main goal — a strong sense of theater as well as acting. The Guild has participated in several acting workshops and has competed in the States Festival.

SENIOR HONORS

Valedictorian

Michael J. Chen

Salutatorian

Elysa Lynn Jacobs

Michael Chen and Elysa Jacobs have earned their titles as class valedictorian and salutatorian as a result of many years of hard work and a lot of natural ability. Whether they were helping peers with assignments or speaking at graduation, they were never afraid to share their ideas with all of us. Fortunately, Mike and Elysa also put their brains to work with their sense of school spirit. They were both involved in various extracurricular activities, ranging from the Math Team to Student Council. The Class of 1995 was proud to work with them and wishes them continued success in the future.

SCHOLARSHIP NIGHT

Andrew Hall received the first of many scholarships awarded to outstanding seniors on May 22nd.

FINAL IMPRESSIONS

High School has impressed upon us all. Our teachers, our friends and our school have all made impressions upon us. Now is not only a time to reflect on our sentiments and thoughts, but a time to realize the impressions that high school has had on us. Every time we think, speak, or listen we are acting with the influence of our teachers and our peers.

We must not wait another day to make our impressions on others, we must begin today by grasping our opportunities and striving to make a difference. As we leave high school, we face a world that demands leaders. It is world in need of ambitious and imaginative people to make impressions on others. We are the people who will make impressions on this world.
